INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

March 8 is International Women's Day. Celebrated around the world since 1910 when an International Socialist Congress in Denmark first proclaimed the day, International Women's Day has returned, in the 1970s, to its birthplace, the United States. On March 8, 1857, women garment-textile workers on the Lower East Side in New York City staged a demonstration protesting their working conditions and demanding equality in the workplace. On the same day in 1908 women from the needles trade industry marched in the same area demanding shorter working hours, better working conditions, legislation against child labor and the right to vote. It was these events in the rich history of the U.S. labor movement which prompted Clara Zetkin to propose International Women's Day to the 1910 Congress.

In 1970 American women began once again to celebrate International Women's Day with demonstrations, forums, panels, conferences and rallies. KRAB programming on March 8 is produced entirely by women and concerns women's issues. You will hear women's music, poetry, drama, even comedy. Other programs will bring you information about major issues facing women today, celebrate the accomplishments of women in the past years and tell you where to find what you need in the network of women's agencies that has grown up in the past decade. Throughout the month, there is an abundance of other programming of interest to women. In order to help you identify those programs, we have placed an asterisk next to the titles in this program guide.

We hope that you will enjoy a departure from the usual on March 8 as we try to crowd into thirty short hours (an expanded day) a representative sampling of what is possible in women's programming. You are invited to take part in some of the programming during the Open Mike program beginning at midnight (March 9 technically). Please call the station (325-5110) if you have music, poetry, etc., you would like to perform in the Open Mike program.

The International Women's Day planning group plans to continue to operate as a Women's Caucus at KRAB. We hope to continue to increase and improve women's programming on a year-round basis. It will help us carry out our task if you will please take the time to fill out the International Women's day evaluation you can find in these pages and send it to us. And if you want to become involved as a KRAB volunteer, you are welcome to work with us! Happy International Women's Day!

SOMEBODY ELSE'S TROUBLES

This month, Somebody Else's Troubles (Thurs. nights, 10 PM) continues with programs leading up to the Northwest Regional Conference on the Emerging International Economic Order. The conference will be held in Seattle beginning March 29, and will consider the issues raised by Third World countries demanding a restructuring of the world economy. These issues include the role of multinational corporations in the Third World, the future of the world food supply, and the effects of Third World demands on jobs in the Pacific Northwest.

For the first four Thursday nights in March, we will broadcast tapes of speeches, forums, and debates held throughout the state in preparation for the conference. On Thursday night, March 29, we will broadcast the conference's opening address. The scheduled speaker is Jamaican Prime Minister Michael Manley, one of the leading spokespersons for the Third World positions.

Then on Friday night, March 30, we will present a special live broadcast of the address by U.S. Secretary of State Cyrus Vance. Mr. Vance will discuss U.S. strategy for the upcoming meeting of the United Nations Committee on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), which is one of the most important global forums for talks between developed and developing countries.

Other key speakers will include Sen. Frank Church of Idaho, head of the Senate foreign relations committee, and Mr. Bradford Morse, head of the United Nations Development Program. These speeches will be recorded and broadcast next month. If you would like to attend the conference or would like more information, call the conference organizers at 447-3894.

4:30 MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

The relationship of mothers and daughters has been the backbone of the human family throughout history, yet until recently, this most complex of relationships has received little attention. A selection of readings from recent writings explore the mother-daughter relationship from various perspectives. Produced by Libby Sinclair.

5:00 PROSE AND POETRY BY CHINESE WOMEN

Poems by Hsueh T'ao (768-831), Yu Hsuan-chi (c. 843-868), Ch'en Yu-lan (T'ang Dynasty). Prose by Li Ch'ing-chao (1081-1143) and Ku-t'ai-ching (1799-1876). Pieces will be read in both English and Chinese with a brief introduction on the life and times of the poets. Produced by Hannah-Wu and Angela Ng.

5:30 VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

Violence against women takes different forms in our society--from sexual assault to wife battering. Py Bateman and Evelyn Brom look at some of the common factors involved in the different forms of violence and explore possible solutions with some of the leaders of the movement against violence against women.

6:30 INTERNATIONAL NEWS

The international news of the day, presented and analysed by KRAB's women reporters.

7:00 ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF WOMEN

A discussion of changes on the international scale affecting the status of women. Topics include women in Islamic nations; the thoughts of Helvi Sipilä, highest ranking woman in the United Nations and a biography of one of the few women war correspondents. Produced by Rae Pearson and Carol Ryan.

7:30 ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF WOMEN

The wins and losses of women on the political front will be discussed, with comments and opinions by women community leaders. Produced by Celia Congdon.

8:00 WOMEN AND WORK

What did you want to be when you grew up? A grocery clerk? A secretary? A mother? A teacher? Or maybe you wanted to be a manager, or work in a warehouse. We will talk with women who do these jobs, and others who don't, and hear some songs of working women. We'll discuss alternative pay measurements, and working conditions, and the morality of voluntarism, and whatever else sounds good to us. And we'll hear a few facts of life. Cassandra Amesley and friends.

9:30 MUSIC OF JESSICA WILLIAMS

Musical portraits by improvisational pianist Jessica Williams. Produced by Betsy Dennis.

10:00 LIVING TOGETHER

Choosing to live with another person(s) involves choice of a life-style, a style of relationship. Various options are explored by producer Carol Brown.

10:30 LESBIANS OF COLOR

Choice of a non-traditional lifestyle intersects with traditional cultures to produce some special problems. Interviews with members of the Lesbians of Color Caucus give insight into some individual life-styles and information about the organization. Produced by the Lesbians of Color Caucus.

11:00 WATT WOMEN?

Woman as rock and roll, as artist, as poet. Judy Malmgren interviews Chinas Comidas, reads poetry, and plays representative music from the fringe.

12:00 OPEN MIKE

Live music, poetry readings and other creative offerings. Anyone from the community is invited to participate. If you are interested, please contact Py Bateman or Halina Pawl at KRAB (325-5110) between March 1 and 7. For those listeners who live out of the Seattle area, you may mail your tapes to KRAB, 1406 Harvard, Seattle WA 98122. This programs continues as long as we have material and voices into the wee hours.

International Women's Day programming continues until 6 AM. After Open Mike materials run out, programs repeated from earlier in the day are presented for your late-night pleasure.

9 FRIDAY

6:00 EARLY MUSIC

Request morning with Stu Witmer. 325-5110.

10:00 MORNING READING

'No Name Woman' is a poetic and disturbing account of the ostracizing of a Chinese woman who bears a child that is not her husband's. Jennifer Wah reads from Maxine Hong Kingston's award-winning book 'The Woman Warrior -- Memoirs of a Girlhood Among Ghosts.'

10:30 KRABJAZZ

Herb Levy warrants to the original listener of any of his shows, which prove to be defective in materials or programming within one year of the date of such broadcast, will be repaired or rebroadcast, at his option, free of charge, if returned to the station from which it was broadcast. This warranty does not cover damage resulting from accident, misuse or abuse.

7:00 FLAMENCO Y SUS ESTILLOS Y SUS FLAMENCOS

Flamenco as always, with Allen Yonge.

8:00 THE MADISON BOMB STORY

Eight and a half years ago, an anti-war group bombed the Army Math Research Center at the University of Wisconsin, killing one person. Now, evidence suggests that the FBI knew of the bombing plan in advance and did nothing to stop it. They may have even witnessed it. In this reading of 'Finally, the Madison Bomb Story' from 'Mother Jones,' authors David Newman, Sandra Sutherland and Jon Stewart show why they believe this.

THANK YOU

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to the people in the Pacific Northwest for supporting KRAB's extravaganza JAZZ: ITS ROOTS AND BLOSSOMS. A special thanks must go to the 286 people who pledged a total of $6,225, making the three-day capital building drive one of the most successful fundraising campaigns in KRAB's history. The money raised from this event will be applied towards the construction phase of the station's new home.

Enough can't be said about those who volunteered their time and talents during the three-day fundraising drive. The combined efforts of all these volunteers--from program producers to telephone answerers--helped to make JAZZ: ITS ROOTS AND BLOSSOMS the success that it was.

Needless to say, the overwhelming response from the entire Pacific Northwest community towards KRAB's capital building drive has been truly heartening. Thank you one and all for your invaluable contribution.

SOJOURNER TRUTH,
"THE LIBYAN SIBYL."

"That man over there say that a woman needs to be helped into carriages, and lifted over ditches, and to have the best place everywhere. Nobody ever helped me into carriages, or over mud puddles, or gives me a best place ...
And aint I a women? Look at me.
Look at my arm! I have plowed and planted and gathered into barns, and no man could head me...
And aint I a women? I could as much and eat as much as a man when I could get it, and bear the lash as well...
And aint I a woman? I have borne thirteen children and seen them most all sold off into slavery. And when I cried out with a mother's grief, none but Jesus heard...
And aint I a woman?"

Sojourner Truth: Speech before the Woman's Rights Convention at Akron, Ohio in 1851.
